Article X. Dissolution of Chapter & Liquidation of Assets
Article I. Name and Purpose

Section A: Chapter Name
The name of this organization is South Florida ASTD doing business as the Association for Talent Development (ATD) South Florida Chapter (hereinafter referred to as the “Chapter”).

Section B: Affiliation with the Association
The Chapter is an affiliate of the American Society for Training and Development ("ASTD"), which is doing business under the trade name Association for Talent Development (ATD) (referred to herein as the “Association” or “ATD”), a non-profit educational society exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986. The Association and its Chapters are not organized for profit.

All Chapter communication materials, including but not limited to, newsletter, letterhead, website and business cards, must comply with ATD’s identity guidelines.

Section C: Governance and Management of Chapter
The Chapter shall be governed and managed by a Board of Directors elected by the membership. The Board of Directors shall set policies within the limits prescribed by these bylaws.

Section D: Purpose
The Chapter is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended ("IRC"), and makes expenditures for one or more of these purposes. Without limiting or expanding the foregoing, the Chapter’s specific purpose is to serve the educational and professional development needs of its members in the field of talent development.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, the Chapter does not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by: (i) an organization exempt from federal income tax under IRC Section 501(c)(3); or (ii) an organization contributions to which are deductible under IRC Section 170(c)(2).

Section E: Equal Opportunity
The Chapter offers equal opportunity to all eligible members, regardless of race, color, creed, religion, national origin, age, gender, sexual orientation, marital status, political affiliation, veteran status, or physical or mental impairment.
Section F: Political Activities
The Chapter does not devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, and does not advocate or campaign for legislation or a defeat of proposed legislation. The Chapter does not directly or indirectly participate or intervene in, including the publishing or distribution of statements, any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Section G: Inurement
No part of the net earnings of the Chapter shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, employees, or other private persons, except that the Chapter is authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of IRC Section 501(c)(3) purposes.

Article II: Membership

Section A: Eligibility
Membership in the Chapter is open to those who have interests or responsibilities in training, learning and development, talent development, performance improvement, and/or human resource development and are interested in advancing the objectives of the Chapter and the Association; and subscribe to and are qualified under these bylaws. A Chapter member in good standing is one who meets the requirements for membership, and whose dues are paid for the membership year.

Section B: Terms of Membership
1. Memberships are individual and nontransferable, except for organizational memberships.
2. Organizational memberships are assignable to individuals within the organization.
3. The Board of Directors may grant honorary membership status to an individual for outstanding contributions to the South Florida Chapter or to the field of talent development.
4. After successful completion of a full-term, the Chapter President is given a complimentary life membership.
Section C: Dues
1. Dues, fees and terms of Chapter membership are set by the Board of Directors on an annual basis.
2. The annual dues are collected for the use of the Chapter to promote its purposes.
3. President and President-Elect have both Chapter and ATD membership dues paid by the Chapter. If the President or President-Elect vacates the office prior to end of the elected/appointed term, he/she may be required to reimburse the Chapter for any dues paid by the Chapter, at the discretion of the Board.

Section D: Suspension or Termination of Membership
The Board of Directors may, by a two-thirds vote of those present, suspend or terminate the membership of any individual for non-payment of dues or monies owed the Chapter, or for actions or behavior in violation of these bylaws or deemed detrimental to the best interests of the Chapter.
1. Suspension or termination of membership is considered at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Written notice of, and rationale for, proposed suspension or termination is mailed to Board members and the member concerned at least twenty (20) days prior to the meeting.
2. Any motion for suspension or termination is made by an elected Board member, based on personal knowledge, official Chapter records, or a statement signed by no fewer than five (5) Chapter members in good standing.
3. Before action of suspension or termination, the member has an opportunity to be heard by the Board of Directors.

Article III. Board of Directors
Section A. Duties and Responsibilities
The management of the affairs of the Chapter shall be vested in the Board of Directors. It is the duty of the Board to carry out the objectives and purposes of the Chapter, and to this end it may exercise all powers of the Chapter. The duties of the Board include: establishing policy for the operation of the Chapter; approving the strategic plan, the annual plan, and the budget; approving categories of membership; authorizing new committees of the Chapter; and performing other functions as appropriate for the Board of Directors.
Section B. Board Membership

1. The Executive Board is composed of the President, President-Elect and Past-President.

2. The Board of Directors is composed of the Executive Board and the Vice President positions.

3. The Chapter Leadership Team is composed of the Executive Board Members, Board of Directors, Directors and other designated positions.

Executive Board Members
The following Executive Board Members are not voting members of the Board unless in the case of a tie.

The responsibilities of the Executive Board include addressing personnel issues within the Board of Directors or membership and meeting as needed.

President
As the Chief Executive Officer of the Chapter, the President is responsible for managing the Chapter in accordance with these bylaws, ATD Chapter Requirements, and the laws of the State of Florida. The President presides at, and sets the agenda for meetings of the Board of Directors and membership meetings except as noted in Article VII of these bylaws; and oversees the management and strategic direction of the Chapter.

President-Elect
The President-Elect acts for the President in the President's absence. The President-Elect is responsible for implementing and evaluating the annual member survey; serves as the Chair of the Nominating Committee; and facilitates planning in preparation for his or her term as President. The President-Elect performs other duties as requested by the President.

Past President
The Past President serves as an advisor to the Board of Directors to aid in the continuity of the business of the Chapter and provides support to the current President and President-Elect. The Past President serves on the Nominating Committee under the President-Elect.
Board of Directors
The Board of Directors (including the Executive Board) consists of not less than eight (8) and not more than ten (10) individuals elected from among Chapter members in good standing as specified in Article II Membership of these Bylaw’s.

The Board of Directors includes the following Vice Presidents:
- Communications
- Finance
- Member Services
- Professional Development
- Programs

All Board positions have position descriptions approved by the Board of Directors, listing duties and responsibilities of each position.

The Leadership Team
The Leadership Team is composed of the Executive Board Members, Board of Directors, and Directors, Committee Chairperson(s), and other key volunteer roles.

1. Directors and Committee Chairperson(s) serve in an advisory capacity to the Board. Directors are not voting members of the Board and do not have fiduciary responsibilities and liabilities.
2. Each Vice President identifies his/her team consisting of Directors and Committee Chairs. Director and Committee Chair positions are appointed and not elected by Chapter members. Directors report to the Vice President and are responsible for the duties assigned in their position description. Directors may vary as Vice Presidents’ projects and needs change.
3. Leadership Team role descriptions are available to Chapter members.

Section C: Qualifications
Persons seeking to serve on the Board of Directors must be Chapter members in good standing as specified in these bylaws. Board members are required to maintain membership in ATD.
Section D: Terms
1. Board of Directors members are elected to serve terms of one year. The Vice President of Finance and Vice President of Professional Development serve a minimum of 2 years, rotating on/off the Board of Directors in alternate years.
2. Board members may stand for re-election to the same board position for no more than three (3) continuous terms.
3. Board terms begin on July 1 and end on June 30.

Section E: Conduct of Chapter Business
1. A majority of members of the Board of Directors constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board. Should a quorum not be present, those members present may adjourn from time to time until a quorum is present.
2. The act of the majority of Board members present at a meeting where a quorum is present is the act of the Board unless a greater proportion is required by law or by these bylaws.
3. Board members may not cast proxy votes for absent Board members.

Section F: Meetings
The Board of Directors meets a minimum of six (6) times per year. The date and time of the Board meetings is announced at least thirty (30) days in advance, as agreed upon by the majority of the Board. The exact location of the Board meetings are announced to all Board and Chapter members at least fourteen (14) days in advance.

Section G: Attendance
1. Failure to attend two (2) duly called meetings of the Board of Directors without prior approval of the President is sufficient cause for the Board to consider replacing a Board member under the provisions of these bylaws.
2. Board of Directors are required to attend a minimum of six (6) Chapter events during a one-year term. These events are separate from Board of Directors meetings.

Section H: Removal
1. The Board of Directors may, by two-thirds vote of the full Board, suspend or terminate a member of the Board for actions or behavior in violation of these b
2. Bylaws, or which are deemed detrimental to the best interests of the Chapter.

3. Suspension or termination of board members is considered at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Directors. Written notice of, and rationale for, proposed suspension or termination is mailed to Board members and the individual concerned at least twenty (20) days prior to the meeting.

4. Any motion for suspension or termination must be made by a board member, based on personal knowledge, official Chapter records, or statement signed by no fewer than five (5) Chapter members in good standing.

5. Before action of suspension or termination, the board member has an opportunity to be heard by the Board.

Section I: Vacancies

1. When a vacancy occurs for a Board position, the President may, with the approval of the majority of the Board of Directors, appoint a replacement from among Chapter members in good standing to serve the balance of the term.

2. Should the office of President be vacated, the President-Elect assumes the position and its responsibilities. If both the offices of President and President-Elect become vacant simultaneously, the Vice President of Finance convenes the Board of Directors to select a member of that body to assume the duties and responsibilities of the President until a special election by the membership is held. Approval of an interim President will require a majority vote of the Board of Directors.

Article IV. Election of the Board of Directors

Section A: Nominating Committee
The President-Elect forms a Nominating Committee with the approval of the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee will have no fewer than five (5) members, including the President-Elect, the Past President, and three (3) Chapter members in good standing not currently serving in elected positions.

Section B: Slate of Candidates
The Nominating Committee seeks the input of the Board of Directors and presents a slate of qualified candidates to the membership at the regularly scheduled event at least 60 days prior to the end of the current terms. At that time additional nominations may be accepted from members in good standing.

Section C. Election
Board members are elected by a majority of Chapter members voting by ballot at a scheduled Chapter event. Ties are broken by a two-thirds vote of the full Board.

Article V. Financial Review

Section A. Financial Review
The Board ensures an annual internal or external financial review is completed by an individual or group not directly responsible for the management of the Chapter’s finances. The review may be conducted more frequently if circumstances dictate by the Financial Review Committee, with findings reported to the Board of Directors.

Section B. Audit
A full audit conducted by a certified public accountant is recommended every two (2) years, and may be undertaken more frequently if circumstances dictate.

Section C: Results
Results of the financial reviews and audits are published and made available to the Chapter membership as soon as is practicable, but no later than 90 days into the following fiscal year.

Section D: Committee
The committee consists of the President-Elect, the Past President, and no fewer than three Chapter members in good standing who have not served as a Board member for at least two years. The Vice President of Finance is not eligible to serve on the Financial Review Committee, but will provide the committee or an independent auditor any and all records necessary to complete a review of Chapter finances.
Article VI. Committees
In addition to committees specified in these by-laws, committees may be established or disbanded by the Board of Directors. Committees are subject to the oversight and direction of the Board or those authorized by that body.

Article VII. Special Meetings of the Chapter
Special meetings of the Chapter may be called by the President, the Board of Directors, or upon the receipt of a petition signed by at least 10% of Chapter members in good standing.

1. The call for a special meeting must specify the reason for the meeting. Business at the special meeting is limited solely to the topic specified. Notification is made to all Chapter members at least ten (10) business days prior to the meeting.

2. Twenty-five (25%) percent of Chapter members in good standing constitute a quorum required to conduct business at a special meeting.

3. The President presides at a Special Meeting of the Chapter, unless the President has a conflict of interest regarding the reason such a meeting has been called. In that case, the body calling the Special Meeting (the Board or Chapter members) selects an individual to preside at the meeting by majority vote.

4. A majority vote of Chapter members present is sufficient to carry a motion, if such a motion complies with these bylaws.

5. The minutes of a special meeting are published or made available to all Chapter members.

Article VIII. Indemnification
The Board of Directors may seek and maintain such indemnification to the fullest extent available under the laws of the State of Florida to protect the Chapter, Chapter members, Board members, officers, employees, and agents.
Article IX. Amendment and Modification of Bylaws

Section A. Amendments
Amendments to these bylaws may only be initiated by the Board of Directors or by a petition signed by at least twenty-five percent (25%) of Chapter members in good standing.

Section B: Notice of Change
Notice of any potential change is published and distributed to the membership at least thirty (30) calendar days prior to voting on such measures.

Section C: Approval
Amendments are approved by a majority of Chapter members in good standing by mail, electronic vote or a duly called special meeting.

Section D: Publishing of Changes
Notice of approved changes to these bylaws are published or distributed to all Chapter members no later than sixty (60) days following adoption.

Article X. Dissolution of Chapter & Liquidation of Assets
The Chapter may be dissolved by a vote of three-quarters of Chapter members in good standing. Upon dissolution of the Chapter, and after all of its liabilities and obligations have been paid, satisfied and discharged, or adequate provisions made therefore, all of the Chapter's remaining will be distributed to one or more organizations that are organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of sections 501 (c)(3) and 170 (c)(2)(B) of the Internal Revenue code of 1986, as amended.

Effective: 01/01/2015
