

Develop Your Best Self: Take Charge of Your Career

It's been a year of disruption, upheaval, and confusion. TD professionals have been so busy helping others that some forgot about their own careers. Are you one? Let's get it back on track. Take charge of your own career and focus on YOU now. Based on her latest book, Skills for Career Success, co-published by ATD and Berrett-Koehler, Elaine will use some of the 600 proven tactics to help you identify your passion and take control of moving your career forward.

Using ATD's new Capability Model as a foundation you'll see that there's never been a better time to focus on you and your career. Whether you are choosing a new direction, recommitting to your current position, or facing an unplanned move, join your TD colleagues to embrace a fresh reset. Where will YOU be five years from today?

You will join the RACE to take charge of your career

- R = Reignite your career passion
- A = Apply activities to strengthen your learning foundation
- C = Consider strategies to reach your career goal
- E = Envision winning your career race